

Five Oilers Stanley Cup Ring and Five Eskimos Grey Cup Rings in Edmonton's King of Rings Auction

Auction Ends October 30, 2012

Delson, Quebec, Canada – October 12, 2012 – It stands to reason that the King of Rings comes from the City of Champions.

The late Dr. Gordon Cameron amassed an incredible collection of championship baubles as the team physician of Edmonton's sports teams, in particular Wayne Gretzky and Mark Messier's Oilers Stanley Cup dynasty and the CFL Eskimos, who won a record five straight Grey Cup titles from 1978-82. Imagine being part of both the Warren Moon and Hugh Campbell Eskimos' dynasty and the Oilers' five Stanley Cups in seven seasons from 1984-90!

In all, 10 of Dr. Cameron's championship rings are up for auction, including each of his five Oilers Stanley Cup rings as well as five of his Grey Cup rings commemorating the Eskimos' 1979-82 and 1987 championships.

Established since 1995, Classic Auctions is the historical hockey memorabilia auction industry leader. Legends such as Maurice "Rocket" Richard, Bobby Hull, Jean Beliveau, Frank Mahovlich, Johnny Bucyk, Henri Richard, Yvan Cournoyer, Darryl Sittler, Gilbert Perreault, Guy Lafleur, Marcel Dionne and Bryan Trottier are just a few of the numerous members of the Hockey Hall of Fame who have entrusted us with the sale at auction of their personal collections.

Our record-obliterating $1.275 million sale at auction of Paul Henderson's 1972 Team Canada "The Goal" game-worn jersey demonstrates the incredibly powerful emotional and patriotic attachment these treasures illicit from historical international hockey memorabilia collectors.

In addition to the amazing Henderson jersey auction record, we also currently hold the record for the top prices obtained for a Stanley Cup ring (1961 Bobby Hull - $85,000), game-used hockey stick (1971 Jean Beliveau - $17,500) and Stanley Cup trophy (1957 Jean Beliveau - $42,000).
