Gordie Howe's Historic "544th and 545th NHL Goals" Game-Worn Jersey Headlines Classic Auctions' February 2025 Auction

Montreal, QC – January 24, 2025 – Classic Auctions, the world's largest hockey memorabilia auction house, is proud to announce the launch of its February 2025 Auction, live now and open for bidding until February 18, 2025. With 1,035 exceptional lots available, this auction is a must-see for sports collectors and hockey fans alike.

Leading this auction is a truly historic item:

Gordie Howe's 1963-64 Detroit Red Wings "544th and 545th NHL Goals" Game-Worn Jersey

Photo-matched to both milestone goals, this jersey represents the moment Gordie Howe surpassed Maurice Richard to become the NHL's all-time goal leader. Accompanied by a Letter of Authenticity (LOA), this piece is one of the most significant artifacts in hockey history.

Other highlights include the personal collections of Dave Ballon, Stefan Persson, Kimmo Leinonen, and Bobby Baun, offering unique items from the careers of these hockey legends. Collectors will also find an exceptional selection of trading cards and sets, including the rare and highly coveted 1911-12 Imperial Tobacco C55 Hockey Complete 45-Card Set.

In addition to these marquee items, the auction features an impressive array of international hockey and Olympic memorabilia, rare autographs, and much more.

All items are available for viewing and bidding exclusively on the Classic Auctions website. To participate, bidders are invited to register on the platform and explore the full catalog of lots.

Don't miss this opportunity to own a piece of hockey history! The February 2025 Auction is live now, and bidding will close on February 18, 2025.
