Gordie Howe's 1850th NHL Point Milestone Puck Highlights Classic Auctions' November 2023 Auction

Delson, Quebec, Canada – The highly anticipated November 2023 Auction is now live, featuring a staggering 1097 lots and an array of exceptional items for sports enthusiasts and collectors. Bidding for this event will close on November 28th, 2023.

This auction marks the culmination of a successful year for Classic Auctions, which has seen five major auctions, making it a fitting conclusion to 2023.

Among our featured lots are remarkable artifacts, including one of the most significant milestone pucks we've seen, Gordie Howe's April 6th, 1980, "Final NHL Regular Season Goal #801 and NHL Career Point #1850" Milestone Puck.

Additionally, we proudly present a complete PSA-graded 1910-11 Imperial Tobacco C56 Hockey 36-card set. A complete set of the very first hockey cards, available to consumers in packages of cigarettes well over 100 years ago.

Personal Players Collections

Dive into the personal collections of three distinguished players—Tom Johnson, Brian Skrudland, and Paul DiPietro—each collection offering a unique window into their careers and achievements. All items in these collections come directly from the players or their families. Highlights include Tom Johnson's Montreal Canadiens 1956-60 "Five Consecutive Stanley Cups" 10K Gold Ring and Wayne Gretzky's 1997-98 New York Rangers Signed Hespeler Game-Used Stick from the Personal Collection of Brian Skrudland.

Brian Skrudland's 1998-99 Dallas Stars Game-Worn Stanley Cup Finals Jersey is another gem, complete with his signed LOA and the 1999 Stanley Cup Finals Patch. Equally impressive is Paul DiPietro's 1992-93 Montreal Canadiens Stanley Cup Finals Game-Worn Jersey, complete with his signed LOA and matched to the Cup clinching Game 5.

Important Championship Rings and Awards

Notable among our selection of prestigious championship rings and awards that would make a statement in any collection are two distinct Tampa Bay Lightning Stanley Cup Champions Rings with Presentation Box.

Also available is Bernie Parent's iconic 1974-75 Conn Smythe Trophy, a symbol of excellence during the Stanley Cup Championship and Vezina Trophy season. Bob Gainey's 1985-86 Montreal Canadiens Stanley Cup Championship Ring, from his personal collection is another must-see item. Additionally, we present Don Wilson's 1996 Toronto Argonauts Grey Cup Championship 10K Gold and Diamond Ring—a piece of Canadian football history.

Rare Trading Cards and Premiums

Our trading card section is a treasure trove for collectors, offering an astounding 285 lots. Notable among these is a 1924-25 Champ's Cigarettes C144 Hockey Complete 60-Card Set, a vintage delight.

Don't miss the chance to own important rookie cards like the 1951-52 Parkhurst Gordie Howe Rookie, graded PSA 7, and the 1979-80 O-Pee-Chee Wayne Gretzky Rookie, graded BVG 8.5. The 1966-67 Topps Bobby Orr Rookie, graded PSA 3, and the 1958-59 Topps Bobby Hull Rookie, graded PSA 5, are equally iconic. The 2005-06 Upper Deck SP Authentic Limited Future Watch Sidney Crosby Rookie Patch Autograph (089/100), graded PSA 8, is another standout addition to this remarkable selection.

Other Notable Lots

Our auction extends beyond the previously mentioned categories, featuring several other standout items that deserve attention.

Sergei Fedorov's 1999-2000 Detroit Red Wings Stanley Cup Playoffs Game-Worn Jersey, photo-matched with Team COA and MeiGray COR, is a prized piece for hockey aficionados. Wayne Gretzky's 1978-79 WHA Edmonton Oilers Vintage-Signed Red Titan Game-Used Professional Hockey Rookie Season Stick, the same model depicted on his 1979-80 rookie card, is another gem.

For fans of hockey history, the February 14th, 1934 Ace Bailey Benefit Game NHL All-Stars Team-Signed Program by 18, including legends like Morenz, Joliat, Patrick, Dutton, Cook, Conacher, and more, is an exceptional find. Carey Price's 2011 Heritage Classic Montreal Canadiens Game-Worn Goalie Mask, designed and painted by David Arrigo and photo-matched, adds a modern touch to this auction.

Finally, Dick Allen's 1971 Los Angeles Dodgers Signed Game-Worn Jersey, complete with SGC Authentication Book and featuring multiple inscriptions, offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of baseball history.
