Gordie Howe's 1964-65 Game-Worn Jersey Headlines Classic Auctions' September Showcase

Delson, Quebec, Canada – Classic Auctions, the premier destination for sports memorabilia and cards, is thrilled to announce its September 2024 Auction, featuring an extraordinary piece of hockey history: Gordie Howe's game-worn jersey from the 1964-65 Detroit Red Wings season. Bidding opened on August 30th, 2024, and will conclude on September 24th.

Highlight: "Mr. Hockey's" Iconic 1964-65 Detroit Red Wings Jersey

The centerpiece of this auction is a scarlet red durene jersey worn by the legendary Gordie Howe during the 1964-65 NHL season. This meticulously authenticated garment offers collectors a rare opportunity to own a piece of "Mr. Hockey's" storied career.

Key features of the jersey include:

- Photo-matched to multiple games and events from the 1964-65 season
- Distinct characteristics in the iconic Red Wings team crest
- Howe's famous number "9" in white tackle twill
- Extensive game wear, including stick marks, board burns, and team repairs

Marc Juteau, CEO and Founder of Classic Auctions, commented, "This Gordie Howe jersey represents a pivotal era in hockey history. It's not just a piece of fabric; it's a tangible connection to one of the greatest players ever to grace the ice."

Diverse Collection Spanning Sports History

This auction features an impressive 1,219 lots, covering a wide range of sports memorabilia:

1. Personal Collections: Featuring items from hockey legends Willy Lindstrom, Pierre Pilote, and Eric Lindros
